expertise and acumen to deal with a wide range of business related matters.

The Department acts for not only corporate companies, including Groups of Companies, but also for unincorporated associations, partnerships, and sole proprietorships. Our objectives include providing clients with a high quality, seamless service.

Corporate work includes incorporations (with memoranda and articles of association, and shareholder agreements), acquisitions, mergers, de-mergers, sales, and corporate governance issues. In appropriate cases, Partners may accept appointments as Directors and Company Secretaries.

The Corporate & Commercial Department at GHP Legal deals with all business entities. Our expertise and experience is reflected by the large number of organisations and other businesses for whom we act and the strong relationships which we have built with them over many years.

We are committed to providing a personalised service coupled with proactive involvement, and expert advice, aimed towards delivering cost effective solutions and the best results for your business. In appropriate cases, our Partners may also accept appointments as Directors and Company Secretaries.
