Renowned for our sensitivity we have earned a reputation for fighting hard, aiming for nothing short of the best possible outcome for our clients, and winning cases to gain them maximum recompense.

Following each case through from start to finish and visiting clients at home when necessary, we respond quickly, offer advice that is realistic and never promise what we don't think we can deliver.

If you have been injured through the fault of another you do not need to suffer in silence, you can talk to GHP Legal in complete confidence. Call our free helpline on 0800 083 2193 and ask for Injury Claims Advice to find out if you may be entitled to compensation.

Once we know the full details and circumstances of your injury we will tell you if we think your claim is likely to succeed. We will advise on the funding options available to you and, where relevant, we will give you clear information about our No Win–No Fee scheme.
